Assessing the Current Political & Legislative Environment

Emily Coyle, Director Ernst & Young

Ms. Coyle is a Director for EY and has been representing the firm and its partners on Capitol Hill for more than 8.5 years. She has more than 18 years of political and policy experience, including time as a Senior Political and Legislative Advisor to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

She worked on Capitol Hill as the Legislative Director to Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz (D-FL), where she handled the Congresswoman's House Financial Services and Appropriations Committees as well her Floor and Whip responsibilities. She has been a consultant to the Heinz Family Foundation and the City of New York's Department of Small Business Services.

She first began her career at Strategic Insight, a boutique mutual fund analysis shop in Manhattan.

Ms. Coyle holds a Master in Public Policy (MPP) in International Trade and Finance from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and earned her BA from The Ohio State University, where she graduated summa cum laude.

The evening will begin at 5:00 p.m. with a reception and a Sponsor's Raffle for cutting edge technology toys followed by dinner and the annual meeting, then our keynote speaker.
